

MENTORING FOR ESD-LEADERSHIP PROGRAMME 2019

Project: glocal Educationteam: “Sustainability gets down to the details – glocal, dialogic, committed”

Project Responsible

Johanna Hallbauer

Target Group

Teenagers (12-19), Young adults (20-30), Adults: Common citizens (parents, grandparents, friends), Multipliers (teachers, school social workers)

Duration of Project

July 2019 – December 2020

Current Status

Planning-, Implementation-
Evaluation phase

Addressed SDGs

OBJECTIVES

- Encourage young people in the confrontation with their identity.
- Sensitization for glocal empathy and acceptance of responsibility with the help of the SDGs.
- Promotion of a cross-generational discussion culture for glocal sustainable development.
- Hybrid commitment: connecting analogue and digital work to create contemporary personal commitment.

MAIN ACTIVITIES

- Workshops
- Sustainability school program
- Informational events (networking, dialogue and educational events)
- Training of trainers
- Global education partnership

(PEDAGOGICAL) APPROACH

- Action learning
- Outdoor education
- Critical emancipatory education
- Sustainable Development Goals

CAPACITY BUILDING

How many people are reached?

Directly:
10 teachers, 30 pupils/teenagers,
100-150 teenagers/adults

Indirectly:
2.000 citizens in the town Teterow

What is the most important change you achieve through building capacity?

Self-efficacy of young people in their personal initiative-taking, cultivating solidarity and taking democratic action – glocally!

On behalf of

Federal Ministry
for Economic Cooperation and Development

Coordinated by

ENGAGEMENT GLOBAL

Service für Entwicklungsinitiativen

Key Partner

UNESCO Global Action Programme on Education for Sustainable Development